7:00P-7:30	SPEED	All-Star Spotlight, #3, 1992: "One Hot Night" – Little did Wheeler know at the time of conceiving a promotional tagline for the 1992 event – "One Hot Night" – that it would deliver more than anyone could imagine on its billing. Before the cars even turned a wheel, this event already had a special place in not only all-star annals but motor sports history overall as Lowe's Motor Speedway became the first superspeedway to run at night under the lights. "We shocked the world by lighting a superspeedway," Wheeler said. N
7:30P-8:00	SPEED	All-Star Spotlight, #4, 1995: "Gordon Dominant" – Jeff Gordon probably would have won The Winston Select anyway, but it didn't hurt that half the field wrecked trying to catch him. Gordon won all three segments of the all-star event at Charlotte Motor Speedway on Saturday night and sailed to victory by 1.07 seconds over Sterling Marlin. And say goodbye to the short-lived silver-and-orange edition of Dale Earnhardt's Chevy. During driver introductions, Earnhardt wore a silver leather jacket that looked more like a moon suit. His driving was unusually spacy, too. N
8:00P-8:30	SPEED	All-Star Spotlight, #5, 2000: "Hello, Junior" – Dale Earnhardt, Jr. rose from the shadows with a late charge from mid-pack to win the race in his rookie season aboard the No. 8 owned by his father. N
